

Benefits of GIIGNL Membership

- Networking with 78+ LNG importing companies and nearly all companies involved in the operation of LNG terminals worldwide
- Access to information that is exclusive to Members, such as industry statistics, incident identification database, study group reports.
- Access and participation to the Technical Study Group (twice a year)
- Access and participation to the Commercial Study Group (twice a year)
- Regular updates on matters affecting the industry such as legislation, either new or pending, technical or operational developments.
- Access to the technical and commercial library maintained in the Paris Central-Office.
- Submitting proposals for new studies to the General Assembly.
- At each General Assembly and Executive Committee meeting: access to high-level discussions (CEO and Senior Representatives) with other Member Companies on topics of mutual interest & opportunity to showcase new projects to other LNG companies
- Free of charge copy of all GIIGNL publications
- Free access to the Members area of the GIIGNL website
- Free access to the LNG Web Info portal for updated LNG information as required to conduct compatibility studies.

More information on GIIGNL membership from our website:

<http://www.giignl.org/our-members/how-join>